

The New York Times

Shopping for Lounge Chairs

By TIM McKEOUGH MARCH 4, 2016

Whether they're striking and sculptural or merely comfortable, they influence the personality of a room. But how do you know you've found the right one?

Friedman Benda
THE CURVEBALL

Bolotas Armchair

Designed by the Brazilian brothers Humberto and Fernando Campana, this furry gorilla of a chair is covered in sheep's wool and sure to command attention. When you're working with a piece like this, "you have to watch the dosage," Mr. Nahem said, noting it would play well with more reserved furniture. "But if you're looking for something interesting and cool, this is it."

$38,000 at Friedman Benda; (212) 239-8700 or friedmanbenda.com

McKeough, Tim. "Shopping for Lounge Chairs," The New York Times, March 4, 2016.

FRIEDMAN BENDA 515 W 26TH STREET NEW YORK NY 10001

FRIEDMANBENDA.COM TELEPHONE 212 239 8700 FAX 212 239 8760