Fernando and Humberto Campana, Sofa Bolotas Purple (c. Friedman Benda). On view at PAD London. Price upon request.

Ever wanted to enjoy a glass of red wine on a sofa that looks like a bunch of purple grapes? Now you can! But be careful—the re-upholstery bill on this one would make anyone a sad drunk.

The 10 Wackiest Pieces We Saw from Frieze and PAD

Samuel Anderson
October 21, 2015

Last Wednesday, tandem fairs Frieze and PAD London opened their doors to offer collectors and enthusiasts alike two new art and design destinations. While both fairs are hotbeds for people-watching and trend forecasting, there are usually a few pieces on display at each that are so conceptual they would give even the most daring collector pause. Click through the most out-there creations we could find from one of the liveliest weeks in European design.
