What Top Designers Obsessed Over at Art Basel Miami Beach

AD asks industry aficionados what they coveted at the month's biggest art and design fair

Posted December 8, 2015

Stephen Sills, Interior Designer “The fantastic Joris Laarman chaise at Friedman Benda was my favorite piece from Design Miami. I think he is one of the great contemporary designers of furniture.”

Humberto Campana, Designer “I did not have so much time to see the fair, but one thing that caught my eye was the work of Wendell Castle at Friedman Benda—he is still in great shape!”

Tromping around Miami last week (in the pouring rain, no less) was not unlike one very long cocktail party. And as we bumped, time and again, into our design world friends snapping up arty finds for their projects (or themselves), we couldn't help but ask the most popular question of the week: “What did you love?” or perhaps more frankly, “What did you buy?” We're here to disclose the details.
