DESIGN / 13 NOV 2017 / By PEI-RU KEH

Now in its sixth year, The Salon Art + Design New York (9-13 November) brought an enticing mix of historic and contemporary furniture, art and decorative pieces back to the Park Avenue Armory this weekend. This year's edition boasted over 50 galleries from 11 countries, of which 13 were showing for the very first time.

Friedman Benda, New York

Friedman Benda brought together new, previously unseen work from Paul Cocksedge, Faye Toogood and the Beirut-based talent Najla El Zein for its showcase this year. Zein, who made her American debut with the presentation, previewed two benches ahead of her solo show at the gallery next autumn. Photography: Peter Baker
