

Short List Revealed for Ebbsfleet's Public Art Commission

01.28.08

Five major artists—Daniel Buren, Richard Deacon, Christopher Le Brun, Mark Wallinger, and Rachel Whiteread—are in contention to create the four-million-dollar Ebbsfleet Landmark, the most significant public art commission since Antony Gormley's Angel of the North ten years ago. The commission is to create a landmark to signal the new Ebbsfleet International Station and the planned transformation of Ebbsfleet Valley, a new community to be created on one thousand acres of open land, former cement quarries in North Kent, creating the hub of Britain's newest gateway to Europe. Over the next three months, the five short-listed artists will develop proposals for the site. These will go on show in the spring. Beginning in the summer, the selected artist will work with a world-class team of structural engineers and advisers toward the completion of the Ebbsfleet Landmark in 2010.
